

NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

Nellie Cummings, an old actress of note, died in San Francisco today in poor circumstances, of asthma.

The condition of Bishop Spalding, stricken with paralysis at Peoria, Ill., Friday night, is much improved today.

Victor Murdock, of St. Asaph, Va., was found guilty of selling liquor without a license. He was fined $2,000, and given 30 days in jail.

The jury in the Marcum-Hargis damage suit at Winchester, Ky., came into court today and asked for more time to consider the case. The request was granted.

William Spencer, a mulatto, was put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison today for the murder of Charles S. Mearland, near New York city, June 15, 1903.

Residents of Silver Creek, O., are terrified over the prospect of every residence in the place sinking into the deep coal mines beneath the town. Several buildings have been swallowed up.

The inauguration of J. Frank Hendley, of Lafayette, Ind., as governor of Indiana, took place today. The capitol was brilliantly decorated, and thousands of people crowded the corridors.

Mrs. Sarah Finney aged 71, died at Kansas City, Kans., and requested that her body be cremated and that her daughter next summer scatter her ashes on the Atlantic between America and England.

Edward Baker, of Angola, Ind., 83 years old, caught alive a splendid specimen of an American eagle after a struggle which he will never forget. He has the bird in his corn crib to show for his prowess.

Ten inches of snow fell at Memphis throughout early morning, seriously impeding street car traffic and delaying trains from one to three hours. The storm extended over an area as far west as Little Rock, Ark.

Nora Hunkler, of Hamilton, O., 18 months old, choked to death on a walnut kernel. The baby and its 5-year-old brother were eating the nuts when a piece of kernel lodged in the youngest child's windpipe.

Because his curiosity led him to open some letters which he found along the Pere Marquette tracks, Charles Craft has been landed in jail at South Haven, Mich., and is charged with violating the postal laws.

Worry over the disappearance of a friend's umbrella, which he borrowed, and over the fact that his honesty had been questioned, broke down the health and mind of William Katker, of Cincinnati, and caused his death.

Charles S. Deneen was inaugurated today as the twenty-third governor of Illinois, in the presence of both houses of the legislature, members of the supreme court and hundreds of others prominent in the political life of the state.

George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee, was one of the passengers who sailed for the Mediterranean today on the White Star Liner Canopic from Boston, Mass. Mr. Cortelyou said he was going abroad for a rest.

The Sunderland steamer Dinnington, which collided off Rams Gate, England, yesterday, with the Belfast schooner Maspach and which was believed to have sunk with her crew of 10 men, arrived safely in the Thames today. The Dispatch was towed into Rams Gate.

The foreign office of Paris announces the appointments to the legion of honor of Maurice de Komiski, agent of the French trans-Atlantic Steamship company at Chicago; and Charles H. Steinway, senior member of the New York firm of Steinway & Sons.

The business of the meeting of the National Baseball commission at Cincinnati may have to be indefinitely postponed on account of serious illness of Harry C. Pullam, president of the National League, who is bedfast at the St. Nicholas hotel with nervous prostration.

Independent whisky men of Peoria, Ill., were somewhat nonplussed by the action of the trust in reducing the selling price from $1.23 to $1.22. Representatives of the three big independent houses in this city said this morning that they had not been officially notified of the cut, but they supposed they would meet it.

Superfuous Details.

Caller (looking at picture)—Does your catema paint? Little Son—Yes, but she's through with that an' is puttin' on the powder now. She'll be down in a minute.

With a Reservation.

"I suppose," said the physician to the caller, "that you would throw physic to the dogs?"

"The good Lord," the caller returned.

WINCHESTER

FACTORY LOADED SMOKELESS
POWDER SHOTGUN SHELLS

Good shells in your gun mean a good bag in the field or a good score at the trap.
Winchester "Leader" and "Repeater"
Smokeless Powder Shells are good shells.
Always sure-fire, always giving an even spread of shot and good penetration, their great superiority is testified to by sportsmen who use Winchester Factory Loaded Shells in preference to any other make.
